

COVID-19: MESSAGES TO PARENTS, GUARDIANS AND CAREGIVERS

Parents are advised to limit their children from access to a lot of information from the internet that may cause confusion, fear and panic among children.

Parents should advise on the interaction between visitors and children.

Parents are advised to continue reassuring their children on what the government is doing to control COVID-19 while giving them facts.

Parents, guardians and caregivers to continue counselling their children and Improve home schooling.

Parents should maintain good nutrition for children at home.